

Instituto Politécnico de Bragança, Portugal

Dear student/teacher, in order to complete the grant transference, our institution needs some individual bank information.

Contact you bank and send us a copy from your bank identification (IBAN number and SWIFT).

Please read the information below.

- Which data do we need to make an International Transfer?

To achieve an international transfer, our bank services need:

- the SWIFT code, referring to foreign banks,
- the Bank's name
- its address,
- the country concerned,
- the IBAN (is the complete account number)
- name of the beneficiary of the account

- What is SWIFT code?

It is the code used in the financial world that allows the identification of a bank, and must be obtained from the Beneficiary Bank.

- What is IBAN?

IBAN (International Bank Account Number) identifies the number of current account of a client in an international context, validating the country, Bank Account and the beneficiary and would improve the efficiency of the service provided by banks in international transfers.

- How do I know my IBAN?

Please contact your bank in order to have all this information, in order to avoid problems and late transferences.
